Chapter Election.

The annual election of officers in Lewis Chapter No. 1. R. A. M., was held on Friday evening, resulting as follows:

S. C. Wright, M. E. H. P.; M. A. Murphy, E. K.; J. Tobriner, E. S.; Jacob Klein, Treasurer; G. W. Richard, Secretary.

Syrup of Figs

Is Nature's true laxative. It is the most easily taken, and the most effective remedy known to cleanse the System when Bilious or Costive; to dispel Headaches, Colds, and Fevers; to Cure Habitual Constipation, Indigestion, Piles, etc. Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Company, San Francisco, Cal. For sale by George C. Thaxter, agent Carson.

St Peter's Episcopal.

Rev. F. R. Sanford, late of San Buenaventura, Cal., the newly appointed Rector of the Church will conduct services on Sunday at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. On Tuesday, (Christmas Day), the usual services will take place at 10:30 A. M. when music appropriate to the day will be rendered by a full choir.

Holiday Goods.

Call at E. B. Rail's store and secure from his large stock of fine goods manufactured by the leading houses in the world; and which he is offering at extreme low prices, a holiday present.

His clerks will take pleasure in showing you around and quoting prices.

No one need send away when they have such a stock to select from. See his advertisement in all the papers.

ALL SORTS.

—More new goods at Cohn's.
—Santa Claus buys his hats at Abe Cohn's.

—Chicken and turkey dinner today at Bryans's restaurant.

—For Rent. — Large desirable rooms. Apply at this office. dl-1m —Toilette articles, manicure sets and Christmas novelties at Chedics.

—The prizes for the Wheelmen's Masquerade are on exhibition at Cagwin and Noteware's.

—Remember the Christmas tree at the new Odd Fellows' Hall on Monday night. Free to all.

—J. F. Egan and Senator Osburn of Reno were passengers on yesterday morning's train to the Comstock.

—Misses Blanch and Edith Atherton returned home from Reno, yesterday morning, where they have been attending the State University. They will spend the holidays with their parents.

—Dick Bender the Indian who works on the Public Building has applied for admission to the United Order of Workmen, on the grounds that he packs pressed brick in his hod instead of those of the Callahan manufacture.

—A clear head is indicative of good health and regular habits. When the body is languid, and the mind works sluggishly, Ayer's Cathartic Pills will assist in the recovery of physical buoyancy and mental vigor.

—The San Francisco Examiner made a fight for the Democratic Supervisors, and now that they are elected, that astonished journal learns that nine of them have made a combination to gut the treasury. Did the Examiner expect anything else of Buckley's Lambs?

—The politicians of Bulgaria have a peculiar way of celebrating a political victory. The fellows who win burn the private residences of those who are "in the soup," and keep the bon-fires up for weeks. This beats the last torch-light procession here all hollow.

—Scrofulous humors, erysipelas, canker, and catarrh can be cured by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. "I have used this medicine in my family, for scrofula, and know, if it is taken persistently, it will eradicate this terrible disease."—W. F. Fowler, M. D., Greenville, Tenn.

—When a young man calls upon his girl now, he knows by her ill-concealed confusion that he is soon to be made the recipient of an elegant embroidered smoking jacket that will be sure to fit—somebody else a great deal better than it will him; but if she purchases her material of Olcovich Bros., she will be certain to please him.

—Mrs. Langtry, who is arranging to play Lady Macbeth in New York has hit on the novel idea of having the ushers of the theater all dress in the Highland costume—kilts and bare legs. Some of the gentlemen, whose legs are slim and bony, decidedly object to the exposure. We are disposed to think that if Mrs. Langtry would consent to the same state of undress that she wants the ushers to assume, the engagement would prove a decidedly paying one.

—Parson Davies (mind you spell it with an "e"), has given a new name to the hippodroming exhibitions of pugilists he is taking around the country. When the authorities of Chicago attempted to enjoin his show he bested them in the Courts by styling it, "certain exhibitions of the Delsarte movement, physical culture, and imitations of the art of sparring."

This definition, coupled with free tickets and front seats for the Supervisors, settled it.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

EXPLANATIONS OF CLEAR, FAIR AND CLOUDY.

Fair, when sky is from 4-10 to 7-10 obscured.

Cloudy, when sky is more than 7-10 obscured.

At Burlington's.

Just received a full line of Gents' Kangaroo and English Porpoise shoes. These are something new and are warranted to wear out three pair of soles.

Wit and Humor.

J. G. Egan is canvassing the city for a new book entitled "Wit and Humor of the Age," which contains the writings of the leading wits of the country, superbly illustrated.

Mr. Egan is totally blind, and doesn't even know a good thing when he sees it, but his book is full of things to tickle the fancy of people who love to laugh, and he is securing a large list of orders in this city.

At Burlington's.

Just received a full line of Ladies' French Kid, Hand and Machine Sewed, of all styles and widths, ranging from $3 to $7.

—Nevada is again agitating a proposition to raise the "age of consent" in the case of female children above 12 years, the existing limit. In California matters are even worse than in Nevada, 10 years being the figure. The people of the State have often been scandalized of late by the coarse outrages of rascally libertines who seduce children and then hide behind the weak law that enables them to set up the consent of their victims as a complete defense if she be over 10 years of age. The Bee has more than once directed attention to the opportunity thus afforded to scoundrels to shield themselves from punishment that, even as prescribed, is none to severe when measured with their crimes.—Sac. Bee.

Null and Void.

Yesterday the Supreme Court rendered its decision in the matter of the Constitutional Amendments. Judge Belknap, who wrote the decision, held that the neglect of the Board to advertise the Amendments as the law directed, invalidated the whole batch.

Judge Leonard concurred in this view of the case and Judge Hawley dissented. The decision of the Court was filed yesterday afternoon.

Meet on the 7th.

The decision of the Supreme Court means that Lieutenant Governor Davis still holds office and that the Legislature meets the first Monday in January which is on the 7th.

Jewelry Display.

There is a glittering display of jewelry, diamonds and ladies' watches in the show window of the Rissckel building. The designs are of the latest, and will be sold during holidays, at prices which can not be duplicated in the State.

The assortment embraces all kinds of the most fashionable jewelry and tableware. Call and inspect goods and prices.

dl15tl CHATELAIN & GOLDEN.

The Methodist X-mas Ship.

The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal Church desire to call attention to their ship which will be finished today.

An old sailor has charge of it so it will come in with full sail. As there does not seem to be any promises of sleighing for Christmas, Santa Clause has concluded to come by boat instead of his reindeer and sledges.

A large curtain has been provided reaching across the church, which will be lifted when St. Nicholas is coming in, and just when he is in the harbor, a boat song will be sung and amid a snow storm and a glare of red light the good Saint will land and proceed to distribute his gifts.

In addition to this there will be a programme consisting of recitations, etc.

At Burlington's.

Just received a full line of Ladies' French Kid Dongola and Straight Grain Goat Hand Sewed Wauken-phasts of the latest styles and patterns.

Not a Junk Shop.

Yesterday, Golden, the jeweler, went to lunch, and the youngster who acts as chief engineer of Geo. Hark's sausage machine volunteered to take charge temporarily. While he was waiting for a customer, a leading society lady went in and inquired if he had "any old gold bracelets?"

"To you take dis for a junk shop?" replied the youth, and the lady sailed out.

—Some idea of the strength of the great French copper syndicate may be had when it is stated that it has just agreed to pay the owners of the Anacosta mine in Montana $30,000 for each month that it remains shut down. In other words, the syndicate pays say four cents per pound to the Anacosta for the copper which it does not produce, thereby reducing the supplies which it has to carry and eliminating a somewhat dangerous factor from the situation.

Happiness and Health

Are prominent problems, the former depending greatly on the latter. Every one is familiar with the healthy properties of fruit, and no one can afford to be sick and miserable while the pleasant California concentrated liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, may be had of our enterprising druggist. For sale by Geo. C. Thaxter, Agent.

—When Sarah Althea appealed her case to the Supreme Court of the United States she neglected to print a transcript and the Court knocked out the case. The Board of Examiners refused to advertise the Constitutional Amendments passed in 1885, and yesterday the Supreme Court of this State decided that this omission invalidated the Amendments, and they are all declared null and void. We never yet heard of an attempt to economize on printer's ink that didn't result in disaster.

At Burlington's.

Just received a full assortment of Misses', Boys', Youths' and children's shoes of all styles. We can fit any foot, also a full line of Gents' Hunting Rubber boots, overshoes, Sandals, and rubber goods of all kinds.

Christmas Party.

Prof. L. Zimmer, of Virginia City, will give a social party at Armory Hall on Christmas night. Music will be furnished by Zimmer's full orchestra. During the evening several of the latest overtures will be played. Tickets, admitting gentleman and ladies, $1.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

—At Burlington's you can find Boots and Shoes from all the best manufacturers in the East as well as San Francisco, and at prices below all square and honest dealing, and one price only to all.
